Volunteer Conduct

- All volunteer visits must be arranged in advance with the Volunteer Coordinator. No exceptions to this rule will be made.

- Termination of the volunteer-child relationship should not occur abruptly. Because of the significance of the relationship, termination should occur with the assistance of the Volunteer Coordinator.
- Volunteers will maintain the confidentiality of the children in care.

Volunteer Boundaries

Volunteers will maintain boundaries around their personal lives when working with children. Under no circumstances will volunteers disclose any personal problem or situation to a child. Children will be curious about the volunteer's personal life and may sometimes know the most basic things such as if a volunteer is married or where they were born, but volunteers will not answer questions or provide any details to the child. For example: A child asks a volunteer if they have children. The staff member replies yes, I have a daughter. The child asks how old the daughter is. The staff replies, she is 10 years old. The child keeps asking questions about the daughter, the staff then changes the subject by saying –“ I would like to focus on you now, how was your day at school?” If a staff is ill or upset or must suddenly be absent, let the child know that you will be gone to take care of something and let them know when you will return. Things children do not need to know about our lives include things such as: divorce, custody issues with our children, dates or social activities, death of a family member, family illness etc.

Language and Tone of Voice

The Helping Hand Home campus is characterized by an atmosphere of cooperation and mutual respect between the adults and children. Adults are expected to be respectful to children. Adults will not use sarcasm, threats, a threatening tone of voice, yelling, exasperation etc. when dealing with children. When individuals come to volunteer with disturbed children they utilize proven ways of communicating such as a neutral tone of voice when dealing with conflict and oppositional behavior. Showing children that you are fed up with their behavior, impatient and unhappy with the way they are acting is non-therapeutic.

Dress Code

Because you will be working with children, casual dress is encouraged. Please be cautious of what message your clothing may send: clothing with potentially offensive language or images is not permitted. Although it is fine to wear shorts, please make sure that the length is appropriate. Low-cut tank tops, “spaghetti-strapped” shirts, and bare midriff shirts are not permitted. If you report to volunteer and your clothing is inappropriate for this environment, you may be asked to leave to change your clothing.

I AM INTERESTED IN BECOMING A VOLUNTEER AT HELPING HAND HOME FOR CHILDREN. I KNOW OF NO REASON WHY I SHOULD NOT BE APPROVED FOR VOLUNTEERISM. I AM AWARE THAT THE CHILDREN AT HELPING HAND HOME HAVE BEEN SEVERLY ABUSED, NEGLECTED, AND/OR ABANDONED BY ADULTS, AND SINCE I DO NOT WANT TO BE ANOTHER DISAPPOINTMENT TO A YOUNG CHILD, I AGREE TO COMMIT TO AT LEAST SIX MONTHS OF VOLUNTEERISM. I ALSO AGREE TO FOLLOW THE GUIDELINES THAT HAVE BEEN EXPLAINED TO ME ON THIS DOCUMENT, AS WELL AS THE ORIENTATION RECEIVED PRIOR TO STARTING MY SERVICE.

THE UNDERSIGNED ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT:

1. He/she is not obligated to accept a volunteer position with Helping Hand Home for Children if offered, and that
2. Helping Hand Home for Children retains the right to refuse any individuals that they feel would not be in the best interest of the program, and, further, Helping Hand Home for Children is not required to state reason(s) for non-acceptance, and that
3. The volunteer file is held in strict confidence and becomes the property of Helping Hand Home for Children.
4. If at some point the undersigned becomes ineligible to volunteer at Helping Hand Home due to inappropriate or unprofessional behavior on campus, no longer having clearance from DPS & DFPS, or any other reason deemed necessary by the Helping Hand Home, his/her volunteer service will be terminated immediately.

I HAVE TRUTHFULLY RESPONDED TO ALL OF THE QUESTIONS ON THIS APPLICATION.
